Jumping the Broom: A Celebration of African American Weddings is the most comprehensive and up-to-date guide to planning and celebrating an African American wedding. This second edition has been revised and updated to include the latest trends and traditions, as well as new photography and stories from couples who have jumped the broom.

Inside, you'll find everything you need to know about:

- Engagement: Announcing your engagement, choosing your wedding party, and planning your rehearsal dinner.
- Ceremony: Choosing a ceremony site, writing your vows, and selecting your officiant.
- Reception: Choosing a reception site, planning your menu, and selecting your entertainment.
- Wedding Attire: Choosing your wedding dress or tuxedo, selecting your bridesmaids' and groomsmen's attire, and finding the perfect accessories.
- Wedding Flowers: Choosing your wedding bouquet, centerpieces, and other floral arrangements.
- Wedding Cake: Choosing your wedding cake design, flavor, and size.
- Wedding Photography and Videography: Capturing the memories of your special day.
- Wedding Music: Choosing your wedding ceremony music, reception music, and first dance song.
- Wedding Favors: Choosing the perfect wedding favors for your guests.
- Wedding Etiquette: Answering wedding etiquette questions and avoiding common wedding faux pas.

Jumping the Broom is more than just a wedding planning guide. It's a celebration of African American love and culture. It's a book that will help you plan the wedding of your dreams and create memories that will last a lifetime.
