The book tells the story of a young American woman named Sarah who travels to Afghanistan to volunteer at an orphanage. While there, she meets and falls in love with a local man named Omar. However, their love is forbidden by both of their cultures. Despite the risks, Sarah and Omar continue to see each other in secret.

When the Taliban takes over Afghanistan, Sarah and Omar are forced to flee their home. They travel to Pakistan, where they live in hiding. However, the Taliban eventually tracks them down and arrests them. Omar is tortured and killed, and Sarah is forced to return to the United States.
